

February 9, 2010
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CALGARY'S PREMIER IRISH PUB AS HOST VENUE OF ROCK AGAINST ABUSE 2010

Shane Seaman, General Manager at Ceili's Irish Pub & Restaurant, offers pub as host venue of Rock Against Abuse 2010

Calgary, Tuesday, February 9, 2010 – SOUND LOFT, producer of Rock Against Abuse 2010, a benefit concert in support of Calgary Women's Emergency Shelter, is pleased to announce that Ceili's Irish Pub & Restaurant will be the host venue for this year's event.

Good food, drink and conversation are what you'll find at Ceili's. With a combination of traditional Irish and North American cuisine and 64 draught lines, Ceili's definitely provides the ideal atmosphere for an amazing fundraising party!

Rock Against Abuse 2010 will feature 3 live bands to entertain supporters. There will also be a 50/50 draw. Net proceeds from this event will be donated to Calgary Women's Emergency Shelter. More details and announcements about this event will follow. Visit us online at <http://soundloftstudios.com/rockagainstabuse2010.htm> to get the latest information.

Companies or individuals interested in receiving information on sponsorship should email events@soundloftstudios.com.

ROCK AGAINST ABUSE 2010 is produced by Sound Loft.

Sound Loft, Calgary's first and only fully-equipped rehearsal studio, has been serving the community for a decade. Music rehearsal studios are available by the hour. Sound Loft also offers sound reinforcement for live events, as well as sound equipment rental. Visit <http://soundloftstudios.com> for more information.

-30-

For more information:

Merlina Almendra
Sales & Marketing Manager
Sound Loft Ltd.
403.287.9220
events@soundloftstudios.com
www.soundloftstudios.com